

Module Descriptor

Code: 00000000 Version: -

Approval Status: N/A

Title: EFEN International Policing and Crime Scene Management

Section: Faculty of Computing, Engineering and Sciences

Level: 7

Contact	E-mail Address	VLE
Steve Delporte	steve.delporte@ehb.be	-

Pattern Of Delivery

Credits	Contact Hours	Independent Study Hours	Total Learning Hours	Description of Pattern of Delivery
15	24	126	150	Occurrence A, Stoke Campus, PG Semester 1
				Occurrence A, Stoke Campus, PG Semester 2
				Occurrence A, Stoke Campus, PG Semester 1
				Occurrence A, Stoke Campus, PG Semester 2
				Occurrence A, Stoke Campus, PG Semester 1
				Occurrence A, Stoke Campus, PG Semester 2
				Occurrence B, Stoke Campus, PG

Semester 1
Occurrence B, Stoke Campus, PG Semester 2
Occurrence B, Stoke Campus, PG Semester 2
Occurrence B, Stoke Campus, PG Semester 1

Site
Stoke Campus

Registration Conditions	Module Version Condition Text
None

Module Details

Module Special Admissions Requirements	Entry to postgraduate programme in Forensic Science
--	---

Module Texts	Students will use the following as an essential text Blackstone's 'Policing manuals' Oxford press. Available via University Library website and which is updated annually by publishers. and refer to: Herring; Criminal Law - Text, Cases and Materials, OUP, Oxford, 2010; Shorts E and de Than C., Human Rights Law in the UK, Sweet & Maxwell, 2001
--------------	---

Module Additional Assessment Details	This module will be assessed through a series of multiple choice questions which will become available once all topics have been released. There will be questions on each topic covered within the module and may include questions on background reading required for the module. These questions will be formative however, will work towards your final portfolio for the course as a whole. If this module undertaken without the remainder of the course then these questions will be your final assessment to obtain your EFEN
--------------------------------------	--

	certificate. PASS CRITERIA: 55% of the questions should be correct to obtain a pass mark in this module. MERIT CRITERIA: 70% DISTINCTION CRITERIA: 80%.
Module Learning Strategies	The module makes use of Blackboard as the VLE. Activities will be posted on the module on a weekly basis. Each activity will contain notes, as word files or power point presentations or in HTML format. A specific core text is used for further reading and learners will be directed to further reading through citations or directly through a network link. You will need to spend at least 18h per week study time, with some dedicated times for answering on-line formative assessments and for taking part in chat rooms.
Module Indicative Content	This module will provide an overview of Major Crime Investigation within the United Kingdom, including domestic and international applications. This will include outlining the key investigative strategies and approaches in conducting such enquiries. There will be an emphasis on certain crime types such as Homicide, Terrorism & Trafficking. The legislation, policy, guidance and practice that support international cooperation to investigate such cases will be included within the module. Cases studies that exemplify such cooperation will also be included. This will be evaluated from both an international policing perspective and an international crime scene management perspective and will outline difficulties associated with these areas and co-operation between them.
Module Resources	Suitable computer capable of accessing both the WWW and the University Server, and of running Blackboard. Library facilities as necessary available online

Learning Outcome
1. UNDERSTAND THE INTERNATIONAL ASPECTS OF CRIME SCENE MANAGEMENT, PRESERVATION AND PROCESSING AND HOW THIS CO-OPERATES WITH INTERNATIONAL POLICING AND HOW THESE INVESTIGATIONS ARE CONDUCTED	Knowledge & Understanding
	Learning
2. CRITICALLY EVALUATE AND COMPARE INFORMATION ON THE NATURE AND SCOPE OF INTERNATIONAL POLICING AND CRIME SCENE MANAGEMENT PROCEDURES WITH SPECIFIC EVALUATIONS OF HOW	Communication
	Enquiry

THESE PROTOCOLS INTERACT WITH EACHOTHER IN AN INTERNATIONAL CONTEXT IN ORDER TO COMPLETE ONLINE TASKS AND PRODUCE AN INDIVIDUAL WRITTEN PORTFOLIO OF SKILLS AND INTERPRETATION OF RESOURCES

Learning

Reflection